Petersbourg, Sept. 21. The 16th of this Month, being the Name-Day of the Empreſs, that Feaſt was celebrated with great Pomp and Splendor. About Ten o'Clock in the Morning, the moſt diſtinguiſhed Perſons in this City having aſſembled in rich Habits at the Palace of the Knees Gollitſin our Governor, they accompanied his Excellency to Divine Service, during which, three Diſcharges of Cannon were made from the Fortreſs and the Admiralty. This Nobleman afterwards returned Home with the ſame brilliant Company, and gave a ſumptuous Repaſt of many Tables: In the Evening the Front of his Houſe, as alſo thoſe of the principal Houſes in the City, were magnificently illuminated.

Florence, Sept. 28. In Conſequence of the new Regulation, they are here enliſting Men for the new Regiment of Dragoons, but neither the Colonel, or any of the Officers are named. Circular Letters have been ſent to all the Communities where the under Officers of the Militia reſided, to notify to them, that they are to be free from all Duty at the End of this Month. Nothing has taken Place as yet relating to the Tribunals of Juſtice, but it is expected that a Regulation with Regard to them will ſoon be made publick.

Vienna, Sept. 29. Their Imperial Majeſties, who returned laſt Wedneſday from Hollitſch to Schonbrun, were wholly engaged the following Morning in giving Audiences. In the Evening their Majeſties, with the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, and the principal Nobility, aſſiſted at the Ceremony of the Bethrothing of the young Counteſs de Schlick with the Baron de Hagen. The Hereditary Prince of Modena is expected here in the Courſe of next Week, and every Thing is ready for his Reception. It is ſaid that there will ſoon be ſeveral Military Promotions. The Count d'Apremont de Linden, who is appointed Commander in Chief of the Imperial Troops in Lombardy, is preparing to ſet out for Milan. repair to Ratisbon, there to reside as his most Christian Majesty's Minister. The Queen of Denmark has felt some Symptoms of her approaching Labour, which is now daily to be expected, the Term of her Majesty's Reckoning being expired.

Genoa, Oct. 1. By the last Letters from Bastia, there is Advice of the Arrival there of four Deputies, on Behalf of the Malecontents, who were politely received by M. Grimaldi, the Republick's Commissary General, assuring him of the great Desire the People of the Island had to return to their Obedience under the Republick: They likewise presented to M. Grimaldi a List of the Capitulations they demand, (which are the same as those they gave to M. de Cursay) and he has transmitted them to this Republick. M. Grimaldi was fully resolved to have quitted his Command, and a large Felucca was at Bastia to bring him back, but the Deputies waiting on him unexpectedly, he staid for an Answer from the Republick to the Demands made by the Deputies; and it is said that the Republick have desired him to remain there a while longer; but this will depend upon their Answer, which perhaps may be favourable for the Malecontents. The Republick continue to augment their Troops by new Levies, in which they are successful, and are greatly facilitated by the Desertion from the Garrisons of Tortona, Alexandria, &c. who are immediately inlisted by the Republick's Officers, and sent either to Corsica, or to the Garrisons of Porto Specia. Last Night General Pallavicini arrived at the Marquis Durazzo's House at Polcevera, escorted by a Body of Hussars, where his Nuptials are to be celebrated.

Vienna, Oct. 3. The Prince of Modena arrived here on Sunday Evening; but Monday being one of the Anniversaries of the late Emperor Charles XVII. on which the Empress Queen sees no Company, his Highness did not see their Imperial Majesties till Yesterday in the Morning, when he had his Audiences of the Emperor and Empress, in the same Manner as the Ambassadors of crowned Heads; and after they were over, and his Visits to all the Royal Family, he had the Honour to dine with their Imperial Majesties without Ceremony, and in the Way that Persons of Distinction, as well Strangers as those of the Country, are daily admitted. In the Afternoon his Highness made Visits to the two Chancellors, Counts Coloredo and Kaunitz.

Kensington, October 22.

This being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment his Majesty.
